Denham's In Brazil

June 2009

Ministry News

Hello , Its almost Summer !! Well, not here, its just getting cold. June and July are bitter winters down here. Just kidding!, last night it got down to 60. I thought I would just use a photo of the beautiful beaches here in Brazil, to make you all wish you could come down and be with us someday ! We have been very busy these last few weeks. So much has happened since the college conference. I was able to travel to the USA to visit a pastor's conference and share a little about what God is doing among us. We are excited to have finished some new books this month. As many of you know , we are publishing John Calvin's commentaries into Portuguese, and this month we just received Psalms from the press.

Other books this month include a complete version of Holiness by J.C Ryle, as well as the first book in Portuguese of well known author Albert Mohler. We are excited to introduce his writings to Portuguese readers. The book is called Atheism Remix.

Last week we just released our new Mobile site, which allows you to place FIEL content (widget) on your computer desktop, or in places like Facebook etc... Tools like this are very helpful in building a community of users of sound Biblical content that we trust will help

It was a fun day at the pool races where James is taking swimming. He was such a joy to watch. When he swam to the end of the pool, he kept on kicking, as if he still had another 100 yards. He was so excited to compete, and was so proud to win his first medal.

Lilah

This little flower has been such a joy to watch. She walks around the house in her mommy's shoes, and carries a purse when she leaves the house. She is all girl, and talks a mixture of Portuguese and English. She has mommy's eyes, and charms all whom she comes across..

Family News

My sister Faith and my niece Sarah, just arrived from the USA to spend a several weeks with my parents. Mom and Dad are doing great and very encouraged by their visit. My Father recently had his 82nd birthday ! He and mom are a source of inspiration to us all ! We have moved out of the apt building where mom and dad live to just a couple blocks away. We are still within walking distance, and are thankful for their willingness to allow us to stay in their old home. The children are enjoying having the extra space. Last week, we hosted a missionary kid named Daniel . He is praying about joining the work in January to be the head of internet ministry and strategic resources. He is an answer to prayer as we need more help on our web team. The need for new content, and keeping things current have gone beyond the capacity of our only IT guy. We

Prayer and Praise Matters

* We will be headed this month to the USA where I will be going to ICRS to secure book rights, as well as traveling to meet up with

are exited to see how we can use the internet site to spread free resources to hungry readers.

Kimberlie has been very busy looking after everyone. She has had a wonderful opportunity to share Christ with an american woman here on business with her family. She takes her to the market, and has helped her get accustomed to Brazil. She is always looking for an opportunity to serve people ! This weekend this family has invited us over for lunch! Pray that the Lord will use us to reach some of these international people who are also here Brazil.

In closing, we hope that you might stop for a moment and pray for this little imperfect family, and for church in the Portuguese world. We understand that there are many demands on your lives, but we are thankful to the Lord for your encouragement. We hope we can be a part of Gods work in your hearts and lives as well.

ministry partners . I will also have my 25th year high school reunion. Please pray for our safety, and that the Lord will use us to bring light to the needs of Portuguese speaking Pastors and Leaders.

* We are so thankful to for how He blessed during my recent trip to promote the Adopt a pastor project. We attended the FIRE conference, where we heard fantastic messages, and were encouraged to keep our hands to the plow.

* Please pray that we might find another location for the College conference. We have outgrown our current situation, and need to make decisions soon concerning 2010

*We have just moved from our small apartment into my parents old house. It has been a 2 week move, and we are glad to be settling in. We are thankful to have more space, and some places for the kids to run a little.

*This week, the FIEL Pastor conference is taking place in Nampula, Mozzambique . Please pray that the Lord might continue to built His church there. I will be giving a full report next month.
